

TXU Mining Company, LP

Mining & Reclamation Awards for Environmental Achievement

TXU Mining has been recognized with awards over 80 times. Here are just a few.

September 1987	Awarded by Railroad Commission of Texas for Reclamation of 632 Acres at the Big Brown Mine - Freestone County, Texas.
January 1989	Awarded by The Wildlife Society, a Group Achievement Award to TXU for Leadership in Environmental Protection Associated with Surface Mining and Promoting Graduate Education in Reclamation of Mined Lands.
June 1989	Awarded by Office of Surface Mining (the first OSM Directors Award) to TXU for Exemplary Commitment to the Environment in Surface Coal Mining Reclamation.
August 1989	Awarded by the Texas Railroad Commission, the Coal Mining Reclamation Award for the Successful Reclamation of 439 Acres at the Monticello Mine.
May 1990	Awarded by Office of Surface Mining, Excellence in Surface Mining and Reclamation Award for the Successful Reclamation of 439 Acres at the Monticello Mine.
December 1994	Awarded the "Corporate Conservation Leadership Award" for TXU's Reclamation and Environmental Reforestation Program. Sponsored by the Nature Conservancy of Texas and Greater Dallas Chamber.
May 1995	The "Texas Award" by the Historical Commission for significant achievement concerning the preservation of Texas history.
July 1995	Awarded the "1995 Texas Reclamation Award" by the Railroad Commission of Texas for the Martin Lake Mine entry entitled TU Postmine Forestland Management; Planning for the Future.
December 1995	Awarded by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service to TXU Mining Company for Outstanding Wildlife Management at the Monticello Mine.
July 1996	Awarded "1996 Texas Reclamation Award" by the Railroad Commission of Texas to the Big Brown Mine. Focus of entry: Economic Benefits of Creating Prime Farmland Soils by Reclamation of a Surface Mine in Freestone County, TX.
July 1997	Awarded the "1997 Texas Reclamation Award" by the Railroad Commission of Texas for the Monticello Mine entry entitled: Rock Creek Reclamation Project: The Backbone of the Thermo Mine.
August 1997	Awarded the "1997 National Reclamation Award" by the Interstate Mining Compact Commission for the Monticello Mine entry entitled: Rock Creek Reclamation Project: The Backbone of the Thermo Mine.
October 1998	Awarded "Excellence in Surface Mining" by the Office of Surface Mining. Entry was entitled: Big Brown Mine - Prairie Creek Restoration Partnership: Paying Dividends for the Environment and Customers.